

Package 2: Costa Rican Getaway at Peninsula Papagayo

Description:

Situated on Costa Rica's north pacific coast in the province of Guanacaste is the Four Seasons Resort Costa Rica at Peninsula Papagayo. Surrounded by the tropical wilderness and sapphire waters, you can enjoy a five-night stay in the Canopy suite, available for two adults with the option to bring two children under the age of 18. This trip includes daily breakfast and four rounds of golf at the resort's 18-hole, par-72 championship golf course designed by Arnold Palmer (cart and green fees included). The private resort spans over 1,400 acres, 11 miles of coastline, eight miles of bluff edges, seven spectacularly uncrowded beaches and one of the few remaining tropical dry forests on the planet. Peninsula Papagayo is Latin America's ultimate coastal retreat offering an unparalleled closeness to nature and a lifetime of adventure in one of the most peaceful and bio-diverse countries in the world. Please note, this trip is NOT valid the week of Thanksgiving, December 15th, 2018 to May 1st, 2019 and must be used by September 30th, 2019.
